Dear Fellow Member

THE ZOOM AGM ON THURSDAY 3RD MARCH 2022 AT 19.00

The 2022 AGM will be via Zoom. We feel that this encourages more of you to attend and participate, and stimulates the discussion, under any other business, on how we can provide events that will enable more members to participate.

The AGM will take place on Thursday 3rd March 2022 and will, as you would expect, include the standard items for which relevant papers are attached with this note. You can from the receipt of this note, through me, put forward any comments, matters of correction, requests for clarification, or objections related to those AGM items and papers. These will be dealt with as part of the relevant agenda item. No other propositions or items for discussion have been put forward.

The AGM will commence at 19.00; we are hoping that as part of the AGM we can get one or two of the graduates who benefit from our sponsorship to talk to us, but that has not yet been finalized. The order of the AGM will depend on whether talks can be arranged.

Please note that we are still looking for fresh blood on the Committee. The commitment is to no more than three Zoom committee meetings a year. We would particularly welcome members from the 1970's which then takes us into the possibility that one or two women might wish to join us – we have seen them at events but none have ventured onto the Committee to date. We are looking forward to new committee members who can give an alternative perspective on how to move forward and what events might attract the members who have recently joined.

Yours sincerely

Paul Seward
